Society for the Students of the Centre for Byzantine,
Ottoman and Modern Greek Studies

DIOGENES CALL FOR PAPERS

The editorial team is proud to announce a Call for Papers for the fifth issue, to be published in November 2016. We look forward to receiving contributions in English by postgraduate students in Byzantine, Ottoman, and/or Modern Greek Studies in the UK and abroad, in the following forms:

ARTICLE

We welcome articles on topics of history, archaeology, anthropology, or on any other field relating to the three areas of our Centre. Contributions should be between 3,000 and 7,000 words and must include a bibliography (excepted from the word count). Articles should follow the Chicago Manual of Style and should include a 150-word abstract. It is author's responsibility to obtain permission in written form to use any copyrighted image.

BOOK REVIEW

Reviews of between 700 and 1,000 words are welcomed on any work published in the last three years in the fields of Byzantine, Ottoman, or Modern Greek Studies. If you are interested in contributing, please contact the general editor about the choice of book for review before submitting.

For enquiries or submissions, please contact the general editor Anna Kelley:
diogenes@contacts.bham.ac.uk

The deadline for contributions is Wednesday, 31 August 2016. Contributors will be informed by the general editor of the status of their submission(s) within four weeks of receipt.
